ABANDON HOPE FOR SAFETY OF HAWKER

British Flyers at St. Johns Believe Intrepid Aviators Lost.

St. Johns, N. F., May 21—Hope for the safety of Harry G. Hawker and Commander Mackenzie Grieve, missing since they set out eastward through the air on Sunday in their Sopwith biplane for Ireland, was virtually abandoned today by the British flyers preparing here to take wing in their wake.

News of the safety of the NC-3 after being so long on the water has been a source of encouragement, but it is recognized that the Hawker-Grieve machine carried only a cockleshell emergency boat as compared with the stout hull of the American naval plane.

OTHERS MAKE READY.

Undaunted by the Sopwith's disappearance, which must be taken into consideration as part of the hazards of trans-Atlantic flight, members of the other cross-ocean expeditions today continue to mature their plans for flights with the next full moon, three weeks hence. From Harbor Grace came word that the Handley-Page super-bomber would be in the air within ten days instead of a fortnight, as the assembling of this machine is being expedited.

Captain Alcott of the Anglo-American team which will attempt a flight in a Vimy bomber expects the latter machine to reach here today or Friday. While here he will use as a base the Mount Pearl plateau air-drome, vacated by Hawker. Flying light to Harbor Grace, he will there take on a full load of 565 gallons of gasoline before "hopping off." His plane will have a range of 2,410 miles. Captain Alcott said today that he would carry a life saving equipment only an inflatable vest, as he considered other contrivances of such doubtful value that he would not burden his machine with them.

Regarding the fate of Hawker and Grieve, some of the airmen here believe the Sopwith collapsed within a short time after leaving St. Johns and the wireless failed. The opinion is gaining ground that field ice and icebergs may have affected the work of the engines through the intense cold congealing the oil.

REPAIR MARTINSYDE.

St. Johns, N. F., May 21—The skeleton of Frederick P. Raynham's Martinsyde plane, a thing of frail appearance stripped of its covering of linen and veneer, was set up in a repair shop today to be reassembled. Captain C. W. F. Morgan indicated that he would not fly with Raynham's plane to attempt to win fame for which the machine is being rebuilt. He said when he recovered from his injuries he would make an effort to obtain a new plane and start an independent flight for the British Isles.

An attempt is to be made by the several expeditioners here preparing for flights to obtain more satisfactory weather reports than heretofore received. Meteorologists of the expedition considered defects due to transmission delays and a request will be made of the British air ministry for more voluminous reports.

WHITE PLAGUE KEPT 82,000 FROM ARMY

New York, May 21—Sixty-two thousand men afflicted with tuberculosis were barred from admission into the national army, 20,000 others who reached camps were discharged for the same reason. Army tuberculosis hospitals, the National Tuberculosis association announced today, six thousand men still in the service are being treated.

Soldiers or sailors honorably discharged since October 6, 1917, and suffering from tuberculosis will be given free hospital care upon application to the United States public health service or the bureau of war risk insurance, according to the association.

The organization announced that plans for a national campaign of tuberculosis prevention would be made at a conference of federal, state and municipal authorities at Atlantic City next month.

MORE TROOPS HOME, SOME OF 82ND

New York, May 21—Forty-five officers and 760 men of the 82nd (all-American) division, comprising drafted troops from all parts of the country, arrived here from Bordeaux today on the steamship Sierra. Among the officers were Major-General George B. Duncan, the division's commander; Brigadier General J. R. Lindsey, and Colonel Robert D. Walsh. Units aboard were detachments from Camp Devens, Gordon, Dodge, Utton, Dix, Grant, Pike, Ruston and Sherman and Fort Oglethorpe.

The Sierra brought altogether 1,511 troops, including the 157th and 638th aero squadrons, nine wounded men, two nurses and 81 Iowa cavalry, 76 New Jersey cavalry, 87 New York cavalry and scattered cavalry.

PRESBYTERIANS FLAY PRESIDENT

Censure President for Urging Repeal War Time Prohibition.

St. Louis, May 21—President Wilson was arraigned yesterday by commissioners to the 131st general assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., for requesting Congress to repeal or amend the war time prohibition act and a resolution was adopted urging Congress to sustain the law. President Wilson is an elder in the church.

A copy of the resolution will be mailed to the President. It follows: "This assembly learns with pain that the President of the United States has recommended to Congress that it repeal a part of war-time prohibition, and in view of this fact we most earnestly petition Congress that it not only retain the measure, but that the measure be enforced to the fullest extent to the end that the needs of the world for food may be met, and that the efficiency and morale of our own people be preserved."

When the resolution was read the commissioners applauded for several minutes.

The Rev. W. M. Kindman of Columbus, Ohio, declared "such a stand is unbecoming for an elder in the Presbyterian church, and for a man holding so high an office as that of President of the United States."

B. E. P. Frugh, of Harrisburg, Pa., state chairman of the Presbyterian organization of Pennsylvania, asserted: "This is the second time President Wilson has stepped in to befuddle the liquor interests, and means the undoing of all that has been done."

Enforcement of war time prohibition was emphasized further in the report of the temperance committee which requested Congress to "oppose all efforts to repeal any part of war time prohibition to become effective July 1." The report advocated world prohibition.

The committee deplored the use of cigars especially by women and urged upon Presbyterians not only the personal non-use of them, but the promotion of all possible legislation against them.

Forty billion cigars costing $100,000,000 were consumed during 1918, the report stated, and if placed end to end would encircle the earth six times. Cigar smoking increased 100 per cent since the war started and 150 per cent since 1909, according to the report.

DRYS NOT SURPRISED.

New York, May 21—The Anti-Saloon league was "not much surprised" at President Wilson's recommendation to Congress that the war time prohibition law be repealed, William H. Anderson, superintendent of the New York state branch, declared in a statement issued here tonight.

"The wets were unable to keep from telling, after the return of Samuel Gompers, that some assurance had been given," Mr. Anderson's statement said.

22 ESPIONAGE CASES DROPPED

Springfield, May 21—Twenty-two cases in which violations of the espionage act were charged were dropped from the records of the United States court of Southern Illinois district yesterday, when District Attorney Edward C. Knotts, filed a dismissal of prosecution. Action in the cases was taken by the district attorney after evidence and records of court proceedings had been submitted to the department of justice, and the finding in every case was that the evidence did not warrant continuation.

Extension Of Time Asked

Paris, May 21—Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German peace delegation, has asked an extension of time for Germany to present her reply regarding the peace terms.

The count stated that further notes were being prepared and that it would be impossible to complete them by 1 p. m. Thursday when the time limit is up.

It is believed, says the Havas agency, that the request for the extension will be granted.

The note says the Germans desire more time to study a number of questions in the treaty which they have not yet had an opportunity to examine.

There is no official intimation regarding the decision of the Allied and associated powers as to the request.

THE HUNS HEAR THEIR FATE—FIRST PICTURE OF GERMANS BEFORE PEACE CONGRESS

In this picture of the most dramatic moment in the life of the peace congress, arrow No. 1 points to Brockdorff-Rantzau; head of the German delegation sent to receive the terms of the peace treaty from the congress at Versailles; No. 2 is Clemenceau, president of the peace congress, and at his side, No. 3, is President Wilson. The picture was brought direct from Versailles by a special messenger for the Newspaper Enterprise Association, of which The Daily Review is a member.

HUNS SEE LOSS IF THEY SIGN

Berlin, Tuesday, May 20—Germany declines to sign the peace terms laid before it because they spell the "economic destruction, political dishonor and moral degradation of the entire German nation not only for the present but also for still unborn generations" was a statement authorized by the cabinet this morning through the Associated Press.

"That these consequences must logically follow acceptance of the peace conditions the American press itself has recognized without question," the statement continues. "Toward them Germany took the standpoint that acceptance of such conditions could not be demanded and that the Entente was unjustified in imposing such demands."

In President Wilson's message to Congress of Dec. 4, 1917, no passage can be found in textual agreement with the quotation in the cabinet statement. The quotation appears to be a condensation from the following passage in the message in question:

"We can do this (concentrate on the prosecution of the task of winning the war) with all the greatest zeal and enthusiasm because we know that for us this is a war of high principle, debated by no selfish ambition of conquest or spoliation. . . . It is because it is for us a war of high disinterested purposes, in which all the free peoples of the world are banded together for the vindication of right, a war for the preservation of our nation and of all that it has dear of principle and of purpose, that we feel ourselves doubly constrained to propose for its outcome only that which is righteous and of irreproachable intention, for our loss as well as for our friends. The cause being just and holy, the settlement must be of like motive and quality. For this we can fight, but for nothing less noble or less worthy of our traditions."

WILSON'S FOURTEEN PRINCIPLES.

"In the secretary of state notified the Swiss minister in Washington unconditionally that the established basis of President Wilson's fourteen points should be authoritative for the peace conditions." Secretary Lansing announced further that the Entente governments after careful consideration also were prepared to recognize the conditions set up by President Wilson as the basis for the conclusion of peace.

"The declaration of rights emanating from these specific declarations of all the Entente powers and the United States constitutes Germany's sole asset in the general moral breakdown of all international politics which has found unsurpassable expression in the Versailles terms."

SAY ALL AMERICA RESPONSIBLE. "Germany answers them with its clearly juristic right in international law. Toward the police-moral bankruptcy of Versailles the German nation stands as creditor with undeniable rights, and it is not in a position to yield on this chief point. Germany concluded peace on the basis of President Wilson's fourteen points, which all America, every individual, is responsible for the fulfillment of its claims."

"It is not the German people's business to indicate how its rights shall be realized by the fourteen points, or especially by the note of Secretary Lansing. That, rather, is the task of those who constructed the fourteen points and brought them to acceptance, thereby inducing Germany to lay down her weapons. We do not believe that President Wilson, Secretary Lansing and the American people can take other than this German standpoint, if they do not wish to do that which President Wilson, in his message of Dec. 4, condemned categorically when he said: 'We would dishonor our own cause if we treated Germany any other than justly and in a non-partisan manner—and did not insist upon justice toward all, no matter how the war ended. We demand nothing which we are not ready ourselves to admit.'"

POINTS NOT IN PEACE TERMS?

"And the German people demand nothing more than that which President Wilson announced in this declaration. We demand nothing more."

CONGRESSMEN DEBATE ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Passage Of Famous Anthony Resolution Presaged Again in National House.

Washington, May 21—Consideration of the equal suffrage constitutional amendment resolution began in the house shortly after noon today under an agreement to close debate in two hours and with leaders expecting a vote immediately afterwards.

In calling up the resolution Representative Mann, Republican, of Illinois, chairman of the Woman Suffrage committee, asked unanimous consent to extend the time for debate to 5 o'clock, but Representative Ferris, Democrat, of Oklahoma, refused to agree.

Representative Little, Republican of Kansas, opened the debate with an address in support of the resolution.

HISTORIC AMENDMENT.

The resolution is the historic Susan B. Anthony draft, proposing submission to the states of an equal franchise amendment to the constitution. It was adopted by the last house, 274 to 136 on Jan. 10, 1918, but twice establishing the responsibility of the authors of the war.

"Pray accept, Mr. President, the assurances of my high consideration. (Signed)

"BROCKDORFF-RANTZAU" CLEMENCEAU'S REPLY.

The text of the reply of Premier Clemenceau is dated May 20, 1919, and is as follows:

"Mr. Chairman

"In your note of May 13 you state that Germany, while 'accepting' in November, 1918, 'the obligation to make reparation did not understand such an acceptance to mean that her responsibility was involved either for the war or for the acts of the former German government and that it is only possible to conceive of such an obligation if its origin and cause is the responsibility of the author of the damage.' You add that the German people would never have undertaken a war of aggression."

"Yet, in the note from Secretary Lansing, of Nov. 5, 1918, which you approve of and advise in favor of your contention, it is stated that the obligation to make reparation arises out of Germany's aggression by land, sea and air."

"The German government did not at the time make any protest against this allegation, it thereby recognized it as well founded. Therefore, Germany recognized in 1918, implicitly but clearly, both the aggression and her responsibility."

"It is too late to seek to deny them today."

"It would be impossible, you state further, that the German people should be regarded as the accomplices of the faults committed by the former German government. However Germany has never claimed, and such a declaration would have been contrary to all principles of international law, that a modification of its political regime or a change in governing personalities would be sufficient to extinguish an obligation already undertaken by any nation. She did not act upon the principle she now contends for either in 1871 as regards France after the proclamation of the republic, nor in 1917 in regard to Russia after the revolution which abolished the Czarist regime."

"Finally, you ask that the report of the commission on responsibility be communicated to you. In reply we beg to say that the Allied and associated powers consider the reports of the commission set up by the peace conference as documents of an internal character which cannot be transmitted to you."

"Accept, Mr. Chairman, etc. (Signed) CLEMENCEAU."

to Rome for a conference with members of his cabinet on "certain interior and foreign questions," according to a Paris dispatch. It seems probable, therefore, that the peace terms will not be presented to the Austrian delegation before Friday when the Italian premier is due to return to Paris.

In view of the fact that the settlement of the Italian and Jugoslav claims to Fiume and parts of Dalmatia are still not settled and that every effort has been made to bring about an agreement before the peace terms are laid before Austrian peace mission, it may be assumed that Signor Orlando's flying trip to Rome indicates some new development in the work of adjusting the situation. Apparently Premier Orlando will at the most remain at Rome only a few hours.

Judge Schumacher, who represented Tyrol on the Austrian peace delegation, has returned to Vienna. It is stated in Paris advices it is pointed out that he was bitterly attacked by the Italians and the French press for his activities against the Hapsburgs at Trieste, where he was stationed during the war. It is said that Chancellor Karl Renner, chief of the Austrian mission, sent him back to Vienna in the interest of harmony during the negotiations.

Germans deny Responsibility

Paris, May 21—The peace conference last night made public the text of the German note regarding reparations and the reply made by Premier Clemenceau as president of the conference.

The German note reads: "At Versailles, May 13, 1919. To His Excellency M. Clemenceau, President of the peace conference, Sir.

"In the draft of the peace treaty submitted to the German delegates part VIII concerning reparation, begins with article 231 which reads as follows:

"The Allied and associated governments affirm and Germany accepts the responsibility of Germany and her Allies for causing all the loss and damage to which the Allied and associated governments and their nationals have been subjected as consequence of the war imposed upon them by the aggression of Germany and her Allies."

"Now the obligation to make reparation has been accepted by Germany by virtue of the note from Secretary of State Lansing of Nov. 13, 1918, independently of the question of responsibility for the war. The German delegation cannot admit that these could arise out of a responsibility incurred by the former German government in regard to the origin of the war. They cannot consider that the former German government as the party which was solely or chiefly to blame for the war. The draft of the treaty of peace transmitted by you contains no facts in support of this view; no proof on the subject is furnished therein. The German delegates therefore beg you to be so good as to communicate to them the report of the commission set up by the Allied and associated governments of the purpose of es-failed in the senate first by two votes and then by one.

A large margin over the required two-thirds majority was predicted today. The vote was expected about 5 o'clock.

With favorable action in the house regarded assured, Senate leaders were prepared to act promptly. They plan to secure a vote early next month.

With changes in the new senate, suffrage advocates believe the resolution will succeed in the senate, although by a small margin over the necessary two-thirds majority.

WILSON'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Washington May 21—President Wilson today sent acknowledgment from Paris of the notification cabled him by the special senate committee that the senate had convened in extraordinary session and was ready to receive communications from the chief executive.

"Please express my appreciation to the senate committee of its courtesy," the president's message said. "And say that I have communicated with the congress in the usual manner through the message presented yesterday and express the hope that I may soon be present in Washington to communicate to them full information with regard to international affairs."

The president requested Secretary Lansing to transmit a copy of the cablegram to the special house committee, which sent its formal notification in a letter addressed to the president of the White House.

With Asparagus

BY BIDDY BYE
Asparagus is one of the special joys of spring. Here are ways to vary the form of serving.

SPANISH ASPARAGUS
Cut off the tough ends and scales of asparagus and tie in small bunches of three or four stalks each. Cover with boiling water and cook until tender. Make a sauce of melting 2 tablespoons of butter and brown in it 2 tablespoons of chopped onion, and 1 tablespoon of chopped green pepper. Add chopped parsley to taste and cook all in the melted butter until tender and yellowed. Season with salt and pepper and stir in 3 tablespoons of flour, and cook up to a froth. Add 2 cups of meat or chicken broth and cook slowly for 15 minutes. Strain or keep the flavorings and add the beaten yolks of 2 eggs mixed with a little lemon juice.

ASPARAGUS TOPS WITH CHEESE
Cut tender asparagus into inch length and cook in slightly salted water until tender. Drain, add a little butter and dry slightly over the fire. Spread the asparagus on a platter and cover with spreading of grated cheese mixed with butter and add a pinch of cayenne pepper. Brown quickly in a hot oven and serve.

ASPARAGUS WITH SAUCE
Cut up tender asparagus tips and boil until tender with 2 cups of green peas and 1 cup of shredded lettuce. Season with salt, pepper, and a little onion juice. Drain off the water and add 1 large tablespoonful of butter to the vegetables, and 1 cup of thickened white sauce. Serve on toasted bread.

BAN ON DANCES IN HINDSBORO

Arcoia, May 21—The village of Hindsboro is having a reversal of form and, where as it had heretofore been a bit sporty, wrestling and boxing bouts, and other sporting events, which kept the citizen up after curfew being of frequent occurrence, it is now to be purified and the new village administration has passed many new ordinances prohibiting many things among them dancing, cigars and punch-board gambling. The ordinance in regard to dancing makes it unlawful to advertise, conduct or participate in dancing in any public hall, opera house or other public building in the corporate limits of the village of Hindsboro, without a permit from the village president. The penalty provided being a fine of not to exceed $200. The new president of the village board is president of the Douglas County Sunday School organization and the devotees of terpsichore have a hunch that he would have to be chloroformed to get a dancing permit out of him. The ordinance concerning cigars prohibits their manufacture or sale inside the village limits under a penalty of a fine of $100. It also provides a penalty of a fine of $10 for smoking of cigars by persons under sixteen years of age. "Any public place and a fine of $50 to be assessed against any persons who permit persons under sixteen years to smoke on their premises. Parents or guardians who permit children under fifteen years of age to be on the streets after 9 o'clock at night are to be fined.

A bit of a frock for a bit of a girl is so small and dainty no one will be surprised to learn its real reason for being is a pocket handkerchief. Be-hold the tiny kerchief, proudly posed in the place of honor in a small pocket right in the middle of the front of the frock! Dotted muslin is the material—white, with dots of lemon yellow, and tiny organdie ruffles of the same shade.

ARCOLA HEALTH WEEK SUCCESS

Arcoia, May 21—Arcoia's "Health Promotion Week" program ended Saturday and was voted a decided success. The pageant Saturday was the biggest feature of the week. Something like 500 persons participated.
In the line of march were the pupils, teachers and officials of the schools, members of the Grand Army, Red Cross members, country club, Women's club, city officials and others. The procession was headed by the Tuscola band. There were numerous gaudily dressed automobiles, floats, etc. Each of them presented some feature of the campaign for better health.
Some of them were original and clever. One of the boys took a float in a tank of water. "Be a duck and take a bath" was the advice printed on a banner borne along with it. Another float advertised the five best doctors: "Water, Air, Sunshine, Exercise and Diet. Another was labeled "The Dirty Kitchen." It showed a room badly messed but the mistress and her children, contentedly crocheting. There were many others.
Winners of the "Better Babies" contest were announced. Edwin Sylvester Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Johnston, scored 95 points, the best of the boys. The youngest is aged 10 months and 23 days. Next was Nellie Leone Shaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shaffer, aged 1 year, 5 months and 15 days. The scored 95. Judges of the contest were Dr. J. H. McCain and Misses Minnie Duncan and Harriet Hartford, graduate nurses.
MOOSE PICNIC
The local Moose lodge held a picnic in the Oak Woods Sunday which was attended by a crowd of 200 persons or more, visitors being present from Tuscola, Villa Grove, Champaign, Decatur, Mattoon, Lovington, Fisher and other points.
Fair weather favored the event and the crowd enjoyed themselves. Boxing exhibitions were given the feature of that part of the program being a six-round bout between "Knockout Sweeney" of Chicago and a Peoria man. Dinner was served.
A message received here Sunday brought news of the death of James Earl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stirling Black, former residents who was killed by an automobile at his home in Youngstown, O. Sunday. No particulars were given.
Mrs. John Black, the lady's grandmother and her two sons Roy and Luther Black have gone to Youngstown to attend the funeral. The boy was eight years of age. He was born and lived in this district four years ago. Besides his parents two sisters survive.

City Seeks to Recover Two Per Cent Fee

Shelbyville, May 21—At an adjourned meeting of the city council, with Mayor J. E. Crockett and all the aldermen present, City Attorney Baker was instructed to bring suit against county Treasurer J. E. Knecht and his bondsmen for certain part of the tax recently collected, represented by the two per cent formerly allowed the township collectors for their work in gathering the taxes. This two per cent, according to a statement of City Attorney Baker to the council, is illegally held by the county treasurer. Mr. Baker quoted an opinion from Attorney General Brundage to the effect that the county treasurer is not justified in holding back this fee, which in Shelbyville amounts to some thing like $500 but must pay over to the city the full amount of the tax collected. The villages of Moweaqua and Stewardson already have engaged Mr. Baker to bring similar action in their behalf. It is understood that treasurers of other counties also have withheld "the fee for collection."

ON INCREASED TAX RATE

City Attorney Baker also was instructed to prepare an ordinance calling for a special election for the purpose of allowing the citizens a vote on "the rate to increase the city tax rate from 1.2 cents to 2 cents. If this proposition should carry, it would mean that the city would soon be able to pay off its entire indebtedness, which now amounts to about $55,000, and would then have means with which to make some of the needed public improvements. Stewardson and Cowden already have made this provision and Moweaqua is in the process of bringing about such an election.
D. E. Isenberg was given permission to erect an addition to the rear of the Tenney building used by the Shelbyville Candy Kitchen. The structure is to be about 20 by 21 feet, the three sides and roof of galvanized iron, and with concrete floor.
J. E. Sparks who has been merchants' partner for several years, has been reappointed, which was done. Mr. Sparks gets the bulk of his remuneration from the business men, while the city contributes $10 monthly.
The salary of George K. Roberts, an employee of the city light plant, was raised from 25 cents to 35 cents an hour.
Corporal Raymond Powell wired his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Powell Tuesday, that he landed at New York Monday and was transferred to Camp Dix with the 155th brigade, to which he is attached. On the return voyage he sailed through the Mediterranean sea and the straits of Gibraltar. Powell reached the other side about two weeks behind Co. H, of this city, but beat the company back to the U. S. A. by a day.
Relatives in Shelbyville have received word that Fred Bowman, a son of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Bowman, formerly of this city but now of Milwaukee, has received discharge from the service. He is a graduate of the Shelbyville high school, and is connected with his father in the operation of dental offices of Milwaukee.
George Ruhl, who is in the service with Co. B, 123d M. G. Batl, has received word that he is being sent to Camp Mills, preparatory to demobilization.
Alvin F. Mathias, who recently received his discharge after service with the coast artillery and returned to his home at Tower Hill, left Tuesday afternoon for Kansas, where he will take employment. Mathias still has two brothers in the coast artillery. One is Mathias, Co. A, 54th Inf., A. P. O. 746, in France, and C. L.

Mathias, sergeant of the 1st class

Co. D, 402 Tel. Bn. in Germany.
Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Reles and daughter, Miss Marie Reles, returned Tuesday morning from Chicago, where on Sunday they attended the memorial services held by the University of Chicago for the students of that institution who died in service. Chas. E. Reiss was one of these.
Frank Stone and D. Leslie Davis have returned from Chicago, where they went to attend a meeting of the Illinois War Savings organization at the La Salle hotel Saturday. Mr. Stone was called in his capacity as central accounting postmaster, and Mr. Davis as chairman of publicity of the War Savings campaign. Dr. J. C. Westervelt, the county chairman, and Mrs. O. W. Walker, chairman of the women's organization of Shelby county, were unable to attend the conference.

NEED MORE MONEY TO PAY TEACHERS

Minimum Salary of $700
Considered Low.

HAVE FOUR SOURCES

Increase in State Fund
Most Likely.

Where is the money for the further increase of teachers' salaries to come from? School men throughout Illinois realize that there must be a further increase. As long as the minimum salary of clerks in the railroad service is $1,050 a year the minimum salary of teachers can not stand at $700 a year, it is pointed out. The recent enabling act through which Decatur school district is able to add $50,000 to its educational fund for next year is merely a stop-gap. It relieves the acute pinch in Illinois cities. It scarcely does that in most places the size of Decatur. Decatur and other cities have already anticipated the additional school revenue. There will have to be more money for the schools, but where is it to come from?

FOUR SOURCES

There are four sources of more school revenue in prospect, not one of which is now available. They are as follows:

One half of one per cent may be taken from the building fund and added to the educational fund. The state distributable fund may be increased.

A bill now before the legislature providing for a county school tax may become a law.

The state revenue system may be revised, increasing the valuation of the property.

WOULD ADD $50,000.

To take one-half per cent from the building fund and add it to the educational fund would increase that fund by $50,000 in Decatur district. In the first place that would have to be submitted to a vote of the people. In the second place the money is needed in the building fund. Decatur district has been getting along for several years with 1 per cent for building but it has not been erecting any buildings for two years. A district can get along very nicely with one per cent for buildings if it has stopped growing. With 200 more children coming into the schools every year Decatur district must have new buildings from time to time. The building fund can not be cut down next year and probably not the year after.

tion and there is not much probability that it will pass.

FOR TAX SYSTEM.

Governor Lowden is fighting for a complete revision of the archaic taxing system which will uncover a great deal of property now hidden and greatly increase the revenue of the state without increasing tax rates. It is needless to say there is stiff opposition to this. To a delegation of prominent educators that appeared recently before the governor on another matter he said: You fellows come down here concerned about your own particular interest, while I am working for the big thing I have no body to help me. I am trying to improve the taxing system of Illinois. I am to uncover a vast amount of property that is now paying no taxes.

Almost as a man the school men spoke. "Why, governor, you have never asked us for help. We didn't know that you needed any help. We know what is the matter with Illinois and if you need our help all you have to do is to say the word."

JAMES M. COWAN
HAS 250 PICTURES

Former Decatur Man Still Collecting.

LIKES NEW ARTIST

Buys Three of Hetherington's Works.

James M. Cowan, formerly of Decatur and now of Aurora, is establishing a considerable reputation as an art collector and now owns more than 250 pictures. The Aurora Beacon News in a recent article concerning Mr. Cowan and his guest artist, Charles Hetherington says:

"James M. Cowan, Aurora's premier art collector, has been the host for several days of Artist Charles Hetherington of Hinsdale, who is just now being enthusiastically acclaimed by art critics as one of the phenomenal landscape painters of the century."

GIVES PICTURES

"Mr. Cowan's enthusiasm has gone even further than bringing the artist to Aurora, for he has secured a promise from him, which has been enthusiastically accepted by the directors of the new Aurora Union League club, to make a gift of six large paintings for one of the rooms of the new Union club building as soon as the same shall be built. This room is to be known as the Hetherington collection room and to the collection the artist agrees to add one new picture each year."

STARTED PAINTING AT SIXTY

Like the backwoodsman who suddenly finds himself elected to the presidency of a nation and one of the great men of history, Mr. Hetherington seems to be budding at the age of 64 into one of the really great artists which a century produces.

Until four years ago Mr. Hetherington was head salesman for a photographic house and a prosperous business man. He invested his money in a colored moving picture proposition, which was a failure, and at the age of 60 he found himself ruined financially.

PURCHASES THREE

"It was in the Marshall Field art gallery that Mr. Cowan first saw the Hetherington paintings. His enthusiasm was unbounded and he purchased three before he left the gallery. Mr. Cowan already has more than 250 fine paintings in his collection. His spacious home in South Lake street is hung full of them. He has paintings in the Elks club that are insured for $5,000 and his office in the Terminal Traction building is an art gallery.

"Mr. Cowan's enthusiasm induced Mr. Hetherington to come to Aurora and bring several pictures with him. They were all purchased by Aurora people."

The juvenile piano and violin pupils of the Decatur Musical college gave a delightful program Tuesday night. There were ten violin numbers and twenty piano numbers on the program. The children all did well. This was the first appearance in public of many of them. Some of the little tots who sang to their own accompaniment are less than six years old.

IN LEGISLATURE

The other three means of relief are hanging in the balance in the legislature with no assurance that either of them will become a law. The increase of the state distributable fund from four million dollars to ten millions is the big thing. There is a much fairer prospect for this bill in the legislature than there is of the governor's signature after it has passed. If it should become a law it will add about $35,000 to the school revenue in Decatur. If the state distributable fund should be increased to an thing less than ten millions our share will be proportionately less.

The proposed county school tax is to the county what the state distributable fund is to the state. It was not supported enthusiastically by all public school men, not because it was without merit but because it was feared that it will interfere with other school legislation. The bill was therefore introduced late in the session.

DECATUR SOLDIERS RETURN HOME

Captain Samuel J. Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bradford, 322 West William street, has arrived at Camp Mills, according to a message received here on Tuesday. He has been in France with the 130th Infantry of the Thirty-third division.

Mrs. Roy Edwards received a telegram Tuesday stating that her husband had arrived in New York from overseas and was going to Camp Mills. The telegram was a surprise, as Mrs. Edwards had just received a letter from him which conveyed the news that he did not expect to sail for some time yet. Mr. Edwards is with the 113th Supply Train and had been stationed at Bordeaux.

Committee to Meet.

The committees in charge of the reception and banquet to be given the 370th regiment, known as the Black Devils on June 17, will meet in St. Peter's Methodist church at 8 o'clock Wednesday night. There were about fifty Decatur men in the 370th regiment.

CIVICS DIVISION WILL BE FORMED

Woman's Club to Have New Organization.

ORGANIZATION of a new division of the Woman's club, a Civics division this afternoon in the Woman's club room is practically assured. Such has been the demand for it that there is no doubt but that the new division will be formed. The meeting this afternoon was to take place immediately after the Shakespearean division meeting, probably about 1 o'clock.

The organization of this new division of the club is only another evidence of conditions brought about by the war. During the progress of the war and since the Woman's club in its national state and local organizations has been doing a great deal along the lines of civic enterprises. Now that they are used to it and because there is need for it, the women feel that efforts along those lines should be continued. The Decatur women have felt that their own local organization was a little weak in this respect, and for that reason women who have been especially interested in civic matters have asked that a division be formed to push that line of effort. Training received in war activities will make a splendid foundation for the work of the new division.

While a new division will be formed, there is a possibility that one of the old divisions of the club will be disbanded. That is the Sorosis division.

A called meeting of Sorosis members is to be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the club to discuss whether or not the women should disband as a division. During the last winter sorosis has had no meetings. While this was formerly an active division of the club now because of death removals and so on there are few members and it may be decided to discontinue it as a division.

ABOUT thirty-five women were out for the golf luncheon at the Country club this afternoon. The outline of the coming golf season was to be presented at this time.

Mrs. C. K. Harris who has been the guest of Mrs. W. C. Starr, is spending a few days in Springfield. She will return to Decatur Sunday for a longer stay. Mrs. Harris has been in Y. M. C. A. work in France and will not be back until August.

The Sans Souci club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Post. Luncheon was served. Mrs. T. W. Bouff was hostess with Mrs. Post.

Complimenting Miss Mary Ellen Clark of Indianapolis, Miss Lucile Gray gave a tea Wednesday afternoon about twenty-five guests being in the party. Miss Clark who was a school mate of Miss Gray at Ward-Lemont has been here for several weeks but will soon leave for her home.

PSALM division members of the Woman's club were shown two films by Frank Peers at their meeting Tuesday night. They were "The Making of an American" which included pictures of Gary, Ind., and "From the Tea Garden to the Tea Pot" which showed how the tea is gathered, rolled, packed and shipped. At the close tea and cakes were served by Mrs. Inez J. Bender and Miss Bertha Barnwell.

Mrs. William Downey, garbed as an old woman, read "Aunt Jane," and had to respond to an encore. She then gave "Lost Children." In the business session the officers for the next year were elected, as named Tuesday in The Review.

MISS NEVA BOYD TO BE INVITED

MISS NEVA BOYD of Chicago will be invited to come to Decatur and tell about her work, according to decision reached by members of the Woman's division of the City club following their luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the Orlando Miss Boyd has charge of some of the recreation work in Hull House, Chicago and has charge of several courses in the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy.

This action was taken because of the interest aroused through the talks made at the meeting regarding the need for a recreation hall for young people of Decatur. Mrs. A. E. Ahrens told of what the Y. M. C. A. is trying to do. Mrs. J. C. Hessler told of work of community centers in Chicago, and Mrs. Robert Mueller spoke of work of that sort in New York. The City club women hope to interest other clubs of the city in a movement to establish a recreation hall. A committee was appointed to investigate conditions and make some plans. The committee is composed of Mrs. A. E. Ahrens, Mrs. J. C. Hessler, Mrs. Robert Mueller and Mrs. A. M. Keane.

Names of the divisions four war orphans were announced. They are: Georgette Guilichon, Marcelle Roselle, Jean and Raymond Vauit.

It was decided to send a made-in-Decatur souvenir to Mme. Humann, who when in Decatur was disappointed at not having been able to secure such a souvenir.

The division will have a called meeting as soon as Miss Boyd is heard from. The next regular meeting will come in July.

ZETA TAU ALPHA alumnae at their meeting Tuesday night at the home of Miss Ruth Lavery spent most of their time in discussing the convention which is to be held in Asheville, N. C. They hope to have some one attend the convention from here. Coming to the war the national sorority had no convention last year. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Plans for their annual picnic which will be held Wednesday, June 11, are made by Art and Literature division members of the Woman's club at their meeting Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. M. M. Worrick is chairman of the committee in charge. The program was carried out as announced yesterday. Both papers and music given were very enjoyable.

At the directors' meeting of the Woman's club Tuesday afternoon Mrs. W. A. Short was received as a member.

O. G. MOYER GRAVE WILL BE MARKED

Now Registered in London Office.

IS WEST OF YPRES

Photograph to Be Sent to Mother.

Mrs. Mary L. Wilkerson, mother of Orville Moyer, the first Macon county boy to lose his life in the war—Nov. 3, 1917—has received a letter from the Imperial War Graves commission in London concerning the grave of her son.

Enclosed with the letter are several leaflets telling of the work of the commission in marking and preserving graves and of the enormous work being done in sending out photographs of the graves. It says that while permission was at first granted to remove bodies the commission is now against it. The letter follows:

BURIED NEAR YPRES.

"With reference to your letter of the 30th November, which has now been passed to this office, I am informed by the Director General of Graves Registration and Enquiries that Gen. O. G. Moyer is buried in Vlammertinghe New Military cemetery, W. of Ypres. The grave has been registered in this office, and is marked by a durable wooden cross with an inscription bearing his name, rank and regiment and the date of his death. A photograph of the grave will be taken as soon as possible and a copy sent to you, but owing to the large number of applications it is probable that there will be some delay."

"The enclosed pamphlet may be of interest to you in this connection."

TO MAINTAIN GRAVES.

"I am to state that the Imperial War Graves Commission has recently been established under Royal Charter with powers to care for and maintain the graves of fallen soldiers and soldiers, to acquire and hold land for the purpose of cemeteries to erect permanent memorials in such cemeteries and elsewhere and to receive and administer all funds which may be granted or bequeathed for these objects."

"The Commission has been carefully considering the whole question of memorials on soldiers' graves abroad, and the enclosed leaflet explains the decision at which it has arrived on the subject and the reasons which led to that decision."

TO ERECT STONES.

"I may add that the cost of making and erecting the headstones on the graves will be borne by the government."

"It is also to forward for your information a copy of the report of the meeting of the Imperial War Graves Commission held on the 19th of November, 1918."

"I am to express the hope that the decisions arrived at and the reasons for these decisions, which are embodied in the leaflet, will be a satisfactory answer to your enquiry (Signed) MAJOR

LARGE CROWD FOR MRS. GILLESPIE

Vocal Recital Greatly Ap- preciated.

Kaeper hall at Millikin Conservatory was filled Tuesday night for the vocal recital of Mrs. Doris Lowman Gillespie. Mrs. Gillespie has a remarkably flexible soprano voice and a very pleasing stage presence. She sang three groups of songs, in all of which the lyric quality of her voice showed to special advantage. In the second group of songs were French and German songs, which she sang in English. In the third group, three of the composers are American composers. The fourth composer is an Australian by birth. He was studying in Germany at the outbreak of the war and was imprisoned in Germany for several years. When he was released because of poor health, he came to the United States and is well known as a composer here now.

EXHAUST GAS IS RAT KILLER

Charles McCaffree Reports 17 Killed
On Maddox Farm
Charles McCaffree is in Decatur for a day or two visiting his folks on North Church street. Mr. McCaffree, who works on the farm of his uncle, C. T. Maddox, near Beason tells of trying out a plan for killing rats published in The Review some time ago.

The exhaust pipe of an automobile is connected by a rubber hose with the rat hole. The engine is then started and the exhaust gas is pumped into the rat hole. After pumping a while the hose is taken out. The rats come staggering out of the hole go about a yard away and drop over dead.

Tuesday seventeen rats were killed on the C. T. Maddox farm. Nine came out of one hole.

Superfluous Hair Now Removed Roots and All!

(New and Instantaneous Home Method)

A boon to women troubled with superfluous hair is the new electric process. It is totally unlike the depilatory electrical and other methods heretofore employed for the removal of hair growth. It is the only thing that enables one to remove the hair completely—roots and all—without the use of any dangerous or irritating chemicals. The result cannot be doubted for the user sees the hair-balls with her own eyes.

A stick of plasticine with saw direction can be had at any drugstore. It is entirely harmless (a child could safely use it) odorless and non-irritating. It is an instantaneous method and so thorough that the skin is left perfectly smooth and hairless, leaving not the least evidence of its former disfigurement.

Dr. Oren Oneal

Eye and Ear Specialist of Chicago

Next Regular Visit to Decatur, Thursday and Friday, May 22nd and 23rd at the Orlando Hotel.

HEAD NOISES AND DEAFNESS.

Head noises are the alarm bells announcing the almost certain approach of deafness. Deafness, like blindness, usually comes on in one organ. There are many who are partially deaf in one ear and do not know it. They realize it soon enough when the other ear becomes affected as it usually does. Head noises are an indication that catarrh has attacked the Eustachian tubes and the middle ear. The symptoms are noises in the head like the singing of a teakettle or cricket, puffing like an engine or escaping steam, falling water, buzzing of bees, rumbling of cars, ringing of bells, pulsating sounds, hearing better in a confusion of noise, and hearing worse in bad weather or when you have a cold. At first you may be able to hear but do not understand or you can hear if anyone speaks directly at you, but not when in a room where others are talking. Only one who has made a life study and thoroughly understands the nature of catarrh and ear diseases can successfully treat such cases. Dr. Oneal's experience and success in treating deafness is well known. A cure does not depend upon the degree of deafness nor how long it has existed. It depends upon the condition of the Eustachian tubes and the ear drums.

Dr. Oneal will examine you free and if he thinks he can help you he will give you so that you may see for yourself what it is like and whether it will help you or not. If he thinks you are incurable he will frankly tell you so.

Many cases of partial blindness caused from inflammation, ulcers, scars, granulated lids, sore eyes, weak nerves and muscles of the eyes may be cured. Adenoids are removed by Dr. Oneal's method without danger. Dr. Oneal straightens crossed eyes in one visit without pain. Adam Thompson, 1041 S. Colfax St. says: "Your method is painless and caused me no trouble. The next day I was out the same as usual."

Call and see Dr. Oneal and try one free treatment. You will be under no obligation to take more or to pay any money unless you wish to do so.

Batt, secretary, A. Brohez, president.

The lineup stands as follows unless the management sees fit to change it later: Pat Franklin, c. Fred Fossard, p. R. Jouglet, lb. H. Hicks, 2b. J. Doyle, 3b. D. Lawler, ss. A. Brohez, if, J. Hicks, cf. E. Gates, rf. The indications are that St. Louis will have one of the fastest teams in this section of the game just as soon as they have a little more practice as they have made a good showing already with practically no practice whatever.

It also begins to look as though this town will have a permanent baseball and football field as a committee has been appointed and has already secured the permission of the Community high school board to place the necessary on the high school grounds as a permanent improvement. This has always proven a great advantage to the baseball fans of St. Louis as it was almost impossible to secure grounds near town for a field.

They have a game booked with Macon for Sunday, May 25 which promises to be a good fast game, as both teams are already proclaiming the victory.

Assumption Wins.
The newly organized Assumption Cubs defeated the Pana Sluggers in Assumption Sunday afternoon by a score of 5 to 1.

General Pershing was due this week to pay a visit to England. He has gone to the visit is indefinitely postponed. The Englishman understands, and it is all right with him. They may need Pershing along the Rhine. The chances are they will not use him there but then they may. And if he is wanted on the Rhine at any time in the near future, of course the thing for him to do is to get himself and his men prepared.

Other generals on the side of the Allies are getting in shape to answer rail call on the Rhine. Word has gone for him and for his reason the Germans foolishly refuse to sign the treaty, there will be no advance of the armies of the Allies. And if they advance, it will be well to have the general's going.

Pershing will go to London and later this is something that will wait. He can go to London when the British with the Germans are out of the way are wiped off the slate. Until that time it is well to wait. Those on the line at the front in England understand. And it is decided that Berlin shall also understand.

COLDEN AFFORD ANOTHER
A new law tells that the effort to educate people of this community to eat mutton proved to be a fizzle. There was some campaigning a start on consumption was made and then somebody threw in the emergency brake. The whole movement came to a stop.

But some of us remember the trouble was no war on our palate as others will now have us believe. Just recall a few of the facts.

Beef and pork had got very high. Mutton was comparatively cheap at the time and there was word from Washington that mutton is good meat therefore we should eat it save money and be happy.

People did begin to order mutton immediately its price advanced, and something was said about supply and demand. The upshot of the thing was the consumer was advised that just as soon as he had mutton and perfected his taste for mutton it would cost him every bit as much as pork and beef.

Well, he had a pork taste also a beef taste. Both those were expensive, in fact were about all he could afford. He didn't propose to take on a third equally expensive taste. If they were coming at this price he had all the tastes he could support.

A BETTER DAY AHEAD
President Wilson sends word from Paris that the railroads of this country will be turned back to their owners at the end of this calendar year. This is good news but we must not get the impression that all our worries will vanish with the coming of the glad New Year. There will be enough left over to keep us in a satisfactory and modest frame of mind.

Railroad owners probably will not have an altogether cheerful time. They will be up against several combinations that are sure to be hard to work. Mr. Hines of course is doing his best but even at this he is pretty sure to mess things up some more before the end of the year. He will continue to run the roads at a great loss even with rates we are now paying for service.

It will be the business of the owners to run the roads at some profit, also there will be a demand that the rates be lowered. All this will make a hickory nut that is hard to crack.

But we have hope. We shall be much better pleased with the roads when run by their owners than we have been since the government took over control and management. This isn't hoping much, it is true, but at least it is a start along a way that promises to prove more cheerful.

HOW MUCH WILL IT TAKE?
President Wilson in his message asks congress to reconsider federal taxes. In this connection he asks that our system of taxation be made more simple and easy of administration also as little burdensome as possible. can be made and yet suffice to support the government and meet all its obligations.

One wonders just how this will work out. How much money will it take to support the government and meet all its obligations?

This turns on how carefully the

Millikin University's Value to Decatur
From an economic standpoint a university with an attendance of one thousand students, would, in all probability, bring to Decatur as much money as a new industry with an annual payroll of half a million dollars and the character building benefits to this and future generations would reflect everlasting credit upon the city and citizens of Decatur.

DOUGHBOY SAYINGS ON PARIS SIGHTS
Paris, April 20—(By Mail)—Standing amid the glories of the royal past of France, in the park at Versailles, an American doughboy burst into this apostrophe:

"Say, pal, where do you get eags around these diggins?"

American fighting men in leave parties led by trained guides from the Paris headquarters of the Young Men's Christian Association War Work Council may be seen everywhere in Paris and its environs, enjoying the monuments of the old regime and of the Empire in a truly American fashion, which does not prevent the association of the great palace of Louis XIV and "Chow."

"Looks like a decayed church," was the deliberate estimate of another boy in khaki as he stood before the Hotel des Invalides. Then he went inside and became enthusiastic over the marble railing about the tomb of Napoleon because it was so "white" and hadn't a flaw.

One of them emerged from the Invalides and grew almost poetic about the yellow light coming through the stained glass windows above Napoleon's casket. Then he caught himself, and almost blushed.

In the next breath he called the Court des Invalides the "soggy snail of the armies of France."

When he saw Gynemer's airplane and learned what it was he maintained a reverential silence of more than a minute before he began to determine its "make."

Perhaps the reactions from Versailles are the most illuminating.

Halting at the Fountain of Neptune, a doughboy cast his eye appraisingly down the vista of the park.

"Gee," he said "there must be two miles of fountains."

Best of all, apparently, the soldiers like to go and sit on the banks of the Seine—watching the river traffic.

The one-fourth size Statue of Liberty presented to Paris by the American colonies watches over them, here. But even it is the subject of frank criticism.

"Huh," said one of the critics. "It don't look as good as the old girl will when we steam into New York harbor."

POLICE GET MAN; JUST WANTED KEY
Captain J. Lee Cline Finds Way to Get Armory Unlocked.

A bicycle belonging to Raymond Stern was stolen from the high school Tuesday. Arthur Wilson found it that afternoon in the alley back of his place put the wheel in his garage and notified the police Tuesday evening. Captain Cline sent Officer Sharp Kemp in the patrol wagon after the bicycle, and told him to bring Lieu tenant Wilson to headquarters along with the bicycle. He didn't want it, so the officer said he had order to bring him, so Mr. Wilson climbed in and was driven away while all the neighbors wondered what it was all about. Arriving at headquarters Captain Cline told him to go over and unlock the Guards armory so the members of the Shrine band could get in to hold their rehearsal. Lieutenant Wilson carries the key to the armory and the only way to get the key was to bring him with it. About a dozen members of the band live in Springfield and they were here Tuesday night.

BOLD ROBBERY AT MATTOON
Thieves Get Goods Valued at $1,200 to $1,500.

Mattoon, May 21—Burglars broke into the Elliott jewelry store at 1610 Broadway on Monday night and carried away jewelry, watches and silverware worth, it is stated, from $1,200 to $1,500. A complete invoice has not been made.

The burglary took place some time after 6:30 o'clock on Monday evening and before opening time Tuesday morning. The discovery was not made until after Frank Hampton, repair man in the store, had almost completed sweeping out.

The crime was one of the boldest ever committed in Mattoon. The thieves broke through a rear window while a light was burning brightly in the rear of the store. They robbed the place while a bright light was burning at the front of the store, taking wrist watches from a front show window. Only one light was turned out. This light illuminated a show case in the rear of the show room and interfered with the packing of the spoils.

The Big Four will not operate the railroad line formerly known as the St. Louis and O'Leary road, according to information received. The "official" family of the Big Four, at a recent meeting, decreed, it has been reported, that the company would lose $15 on every car of freight handled, the upkeep of the road being taken into consideration with the actual hauling.

Irish societies in the United States that safe conduct be given by the British government for Edward De Valera and other Irish Sinn Fein representatives to come to Paris and present Ireland's case before the peace conference, will be transmitted to the British authorities. It was stated today. The request was made through Secretary of State Lansing who referred it to President Wilson. A refusal on the part of the British government is anticipated thus terminating the incident.

STUDENTS HELP IN "Y" PROGRAM

Railroad Association Gains 133 New Members in Campaign Monday.

Millikin university students assisted in the first open house of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. in its new quarters in the old Illinois hotel Monday evening by presenting a program of musical numbers and readings.

The program included a piano selection by Earl Judy, vocal solos by Miss Jessie Johnston, some readings by Clinton File, a group of Spanish songs by Miss Cotelina Davis, and a group of negro melodies by William Hayes. Attendance for the entertainment was cut down by the rainy evening, but the lobby was well filled in spite of the handicap. The program was enjoyed, each of the performers being called back for encores.

133 MEMBERS ADDED.

Rain interfered Monday not only with attendance at the entertainment but also with the membership campaign, which could be carried on only in the shops and offices. With this handicap, however, a total of 133 new members were added to the list, 78 going to the credit of the "navy" team and 57 to the "army." The total now stands 304 as a result of the last three days' work.

Millikin is a community influence; it is not exclusive. Its faculty is constantly called upon for community tasks.

Working on heavy schedules, they are never too busy to give their talents for the promotion of the things that make for a better Decatur. They are constantly in demand for educational and civic addresses; they direct community sings; they co-operate with the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., and other community agencies. The students do their part. One of the most successful courses taught in the University is that in Citizenship. Students are urged to study Decatur, to note its progressive tendencies, to assist in whatever way they can to improve community life.

Hence, between the University and the city, there has come to exist the best of feeling.

Ten years ago students could not hold a night parade downtown without being stoned. All this is passed and forgotten.

All Decatur is for Millikin because Millikin is for Decatur.

CONCRETE DRIVES FOR STALEY PLANT

Main Trunk Road Through Factory Site.

Advocate of good roads, hard roads would receive some pleasant impressions if they could now visit the Staley Starch making plant in East Decatur. The managers of that big industry recognize that it does not pay to have men, horses or trucks wading their energies dragging loads through mud and a complete system of wide concrete driveways is being constructed throughout the sixty acres owned by the company. The driveways are not constructed ahead of the buildings but a main trunk driveway is already in and branches are built from that as fast as the major building operations are completed.

The plaza which is surrounded by the office building, the machine and wood working shop and the welfare house, has been completely covered with a concrete surface as good as most sidewalks about town. In the middle rises a concrete fountain, designed and built by the employees, and at present a large force of men is at work building the concrete drive between the machine shop and one of the larger buildings in the northeast corner of the property. Concrete mixing machines are going constantly and the result is showing in the series of drives and concrete platforms of every description about the place.

The whole place is being "pulled out of the mud" as fast as the buildings are erected and heavy loads are handled easily about the plant because of these hard, smooth roads.

STALEY OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

Board Formally Approves Bond Issue.

At the meeting of the newly elected board of directors of the A. E. Staley Manufacturing Co. Tuesday afternoon the old executive officers of the firm were formally re-elected. They are as follows:

President and general manager—A. E. Staley
First vice president—T. L. Wolf
Second vice president—W. S. Pritchard
Secretary and treasurer—C. J. Shuster
Assistant secretary and assistant treasurer—R. O. Augur
Auditor—G. H. Auer
General counsel—C. C. LeFors.

FORMAL ADOPTION.

The plans which had been formally discussed during the two days' session of the stockholders and the directors were formally and legally adopted along with the formal vote on the $2,000,000 bond issue which makes the extensive improvements planned possible.

With the city in full swing on the preliminary work of getting the water impounding dam started and with the ground cleared of all formal actions the plans for the construction work at the big east end industrial plant will now be pushed.

Materials are already being purchased and there are carloads of sand and gravel and lumber already at the factory.

U. S. POLICY IN RUSSIA UNCHANGED

General Graves Issues Message to His Troops.

(Correspondence of Associated Press)

Vladivostok, April 20.—Major General William S. Graves, commander of the American expeditionary forces in Siberia, has issued a message to his troops in which he declares that the American policy in Russia is the same today as when the Washington government issued its proclamation at the time of the sending of the American forces to Siberia.

The message is entitled "Our Duty in Siberia." In it Major-General Graves says: "The policy to be followed by our troops in any country is one to be determined by the executive."

"It was clearly announced in the most public and solemn manner that the United States did not contemplate any interference of any kind with the political sovereignty of Russia, any intervention in her internal affairs or any impairment of her territorial integrity."

NO INTERFERENCE OF RIGHTS.

"The United States does not intend to permit its agents to interfere with the sovereign rights of the Russian people. Our aim has been to carry out to the letter the policy of our government. There has been no interference in the internal affairs of the Russian people and no action has been taken by the United States troops which could justly be said as taking sides in the differences of the factions."

"We must realize that every nation has its ideals and traditions which should be respected by all, and especially by guests as we are. It is hoped that every citizen of the United States in Siberia and especially those wearing the United States military uniform will constantly keep in mind these facts and fully respect, not only the laws, but the customs and traditions of the people."

"In any body of men as large as the American expeditionary force, unfortunately there will always be found individuals who will act so as to bring discredit to his countrymen. This expedition has been no exception to the general rule. This fact however, should cause all of us to conduct ourselves so that the Russian people will realize that the United States soldier is a man of good habits, self-respecting and honorable."

"In our relation to the political life of the Russian people, the greatest care must be exercised not to become involved and if we have any views as to the policies of the contending factions, care should be exercised not to express those views to Russian people as this may become a most offensive interference in their own affairs."

SOPHOMORES WIN OVER FRESHMEN

Large Crowd Hears Debate on Insurance.

The annual literary contest between the freshman and sophomore classes at Millikin university Tuesday night was won by the sophomores by the decision of a jury of twenty five judges selected from various professions and business occupations in Decatur.

It was decided that such a group of judges consisting of professional, business and laboring men would be a good jury before which to hold the contest and this unusual procedure was followed Tuesday night.

HAS LARGE CROWD

Dr. J. C. Hessler, dean of the university, presided at the meeting which had one of the largest crowds which ever listened to such a contest at the local school.

In the debate event which was over the question, "Resolved—That all insurance should be owned and controlled by the government exclusively," the sophomores, who had the negative side, were awarded the decision by a vote of 13 to 12. The freshmen were represented by Mildred Ley and Franklin Beard and the winners by Huston Banton and Orville Buckles.

EFFECTIVE READING

Adelle Shelah, a sophomore, won the effective reading contest over Lucile Greider who represented the freshmen, and Ruth McKinney won the essay contest for the second year people.

The freshmen however won the stunt contest which was put on by Charles Logan and Robert Hornback and also the effective speaking contest wherein Charles Mills, a freshman, defeated Chester Hans, a sophomore.

As the sophomores won three out of the five events they were declared the winners of the annual event between the two classes.

78 MEMBERS AT SENIOR BANQUET

Part of Aeroplane Used as Topic at First Methodist

Seventy-eight members of the senior Sunday school department of the First Methodist church were present at the banquet given by the senior department in honor of the graduating class of the department Tuesday night. Hand made program and menu cards were at each place at the table which was decorated in green and white. The banquet was given by the Women's Bible class.

The program was carried out in the style of an aeroplane. Each part of the aeroplane corresponded to some characteristic need in human life. Bunn Guest was toast master. A toast on the "selection of material" was given by B. A. Imboden. The toast on the "Wings and the Hinder" Erwin Hurr's subject was "The Engine and the Carburator." Winona Hill spoke on the "Pilot." The main address of the evening was given on "The Kick Off" by R. C. Augustine. Additional numbers were a vocal solo by Clarence Perkins and a piano solo by Mrs. B. A. Imboden.

DECATUR MEN IN SPRINGFIELD

Attend Session of Theater Owners Fighting Censorship.

Decatur moving picture theater representatives were in Springfield Tuesday and Wednesday protesting against the passage of the Buck bill which provides for state approval before pictures can be shown.

R. J. LaVoise, Rex Lawhead, A. S. Gifford and Mrs. E. J. Striewling represented Decatur exhibitors and they found there men from The Famous Players Co., The Lasky Co. and other film makers as well as W. W. Watts, president of the Motion Picture Exhibitors' association of Illinois.

APPROVE ALL PICTURES.

The bill specifically provides that the department of Registration and Education shall approve all motion picture exhibitions given in the state, except for religious, educational, fraternal purposes. News bulletin slides are also exempt.

The exhibitors claim that the public is in reality the best censor and that pictures which are not good die quickly at the expense of the makers without the need of state censorship.

ARTFUL DODGER HAS NO CHANCE

Put a few drops on that old touchy corn then lift it out without pain

Ouch! ? ? ? ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freestone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain. A delightful surprise awaits all who try this.

He says freestone is a sticky substance which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissues or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freestone which will cost very little at any drug store, is said to be sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

INSPECTING THE SPRINKLING SYSTEMS

About a Month Required to Go Over About Twenty Plants.

Charles W. Hewitt, inspector for the Illinois inspection bureau, is in Decatur going over the establishments that have sprinkler systems.

There are about twenty of these in the city. It will take about a month to go over them all. The longest time will be required at the Staley starch works where a week will be required. Not all of that plant is sprinklered. Part of it that is of entire fireproof construction is not sprinklered, depending on the process carried on. A week will be required at the Saffern & Hunt plant.

DECATUR DISTRICT PRAISED FOR WORK

Centenary Drive Progressing Rapidly Despite Rain —First Church Expects Quota by Tonight.

Decatur District.
District quota—$436,010.
Previously reported—$314,175.
Tuesday subscriptions—$26,521.
Balance to be raised—$155,241.

Decatur district of the Methodist church is not only doing well in its work of raising the centenary movement funds this week, but it is also attracting attention because of its promptness and efficiency in turning in reports to the Chicago area office. Out of the thirty-five districts in the Chicago area only four, one of which is Decatur district, is getting its reports in every evening in the form desired, to the Chicago office. District Superintendent M. N. English Tuesday received from headquarters a telegram congratulating him on the splendid work being done and the fine organization in his district.

PASTORS WORKING.
Sub-district chairman E. V. Young of Moweaqua, W. G. Lloyd of Monticello, G. V. Metzger of Sullivan, M. G. Coleman of Shelbyville, and N. M. Rigg of Decatur are giving their time exclusively to the centenary work, assisting in the canvass and directing the workers in different charges.

Other pastors, E. G. Williams of Bethany, M. B. Tremaine of Findlay and D. A. Shuck of Findlay, are giving most of their time to work in other churches. As fast as churches go over the top now the pastors of those churches will be assigned to work with the pastors and laymen of other charges. Rain and mud, while delaying the work to some extent, has not deterred these men in the work.

SUBSCRIBE $26,521.
Canvassing Tuesday resulted in subscriptions amounting to $26,521. The balance yet to be raised to meet the quota is $155,241. Reports of good subscriptions continue to come in and churches are moving forward. It is expected that a number will go over the top today. The First Methodist church of Decatur expects to have its quota reached by the time of the Victory meeting, tonight, at the church. An additional $1,000 was received by the church Tuesday.

Grace church is also getting near its goal. Tuesday night the balance yet to be raised was $7,870. Every effort will be made to have the full amount in by Friday, which has been set as over the top day. A meeting will be held Thursday night of the workers. Friday night the banquet will be given for all who have taken part in the canvass.

MANY $1000 GIFTS.
Canvassers find that popular subscriptions seem to be $200 a year or $1,000 for the year, and $100 a year or $500 for the five years. A surprisingly large number of these are being secured. Many of them came from people who never before had given more than $5 or $10 a year for missionary enterprises.

Considerable money is being designated to go to the Wesley foundation at the state university, which carries on religious work among the students. Annually more than 1200 Methodist young people are students at the state university. They are destined to be the leaders in their own communities in this land and in foreign countries. This foundation offers a strategic opportunity for training these young people for Christian leadership.

USE OF MONEY.
Despite all attempts to inform the people there are many who still do not understand the uses to which the $100,000,000 will be put. Forty millions of it is for the building of hospitals, schools, churches, and evangelistic work in foreign lands. Forty millions will be put in the United States in helping to solve the rural church problem, in city and industrial centers, frontiers and other fields in the home missionary work. Twenty-five millions will be used in reconstruction work in Europe and meeting of conditions in America growing out of the war.

It is estimated that nearly $65,000 will be spent in Decatur district within the next five years in helping to put the work of the church on an efficient basis in communities where outside help is necessary.

STUART WOOD GIVES ADDRESS

After the program, a reception was given for Mr. Wood and punch and wafers were served. Mr. Wood has a host of friends in the community as he received his ward school education in the French school. Miss May Conrad, who was to have talked, was unable to be there because of illness.

CORN WIPED OUT

Chicago, May 21.—Fresh advances in the corn market resulted today from continuing excessive wet weather and from closeness of receipts. The new arrivals were even smaller than on yesterday, and many sections reported further delay in planting. Buying, however, was less ont that or late. Opening prices, which ranged from $\frac{1}{4}$ to $1\frac{1}{2}$ higher, with $\$1.65$ to $1.95\frac{1}{2}$, and September $\$1.83\frac{1}{2}$ to $1.94\frac{1}{2}$, were followed by moderate additional gains.

PRICE OF COAL ADVANCED HERE

Screened Lump Now $4.50
Delivered.

TEAMSTERS RAISED

Cost of Hauling in City Up
Fifteen Cents.

The price of coal has been advanced in Decatur and so has the cost of hauling the coal. The coal companies put on an additional ten cents per ton at the mine and the haulers are asking fifteen cents additional for domestic coal hauled within the city limits and another twenty-five cents extra for coal hauled beyond the city boundaries.

This now makes domestic screened lump prices $4.50 delivered at the house within the city limits and $1.75 if delivered outside those limits.

MINE RUN LESS

On mine run coal the price is fifty cents per ton less or $3.75 at the shafts with the same prices for hauling as for the screened lump. The charges for hauling steam coal have been advanced from 10 to 60 cents a ton and on the hauling of a half ton the charge is 15 cents or within ten cents of the charge for a whole ton.

TEAMSTERS' PRICES

The scale of prices adopted by the teamsters for hauling is now as follows: within the city 50 cents a ton, beyond the city 100 cents a ton; half ton 15 cents, steam coal 60 cents. The advance on the half ton charge from 40 to 15 cents and on steam coal the old price was 15 cents a ton.

FEELERS' HINDER

"With coal at $1.50 a bushel and hay $1.25 a hundred pounds, the teamsters really need the advance," said a dealer in feed.

"The high cost of living has certainly hit the horse as much as it has the human being and the charges for keeping a team of work horses in this city are very heavy."

SENDS POSTER FROM FRANCE

Thatcher Shellabarger Makes Three Sketches of Scenes

The Red Cross canteen committee is proud because of the receipt of a gift from overseas. It is a gift both artistic and particularly fitting as to time and place it being a poster showing in colors the distinctive insignia of the American expeditionary forces. The poster was sent by Thatcher Shellabarger and was received in Decatur Tuesday. It was printed by the blue printing plant of the 25th U. S. Engineers. Mrs. W. L. Shellabarger has the poster neatly framed and it was hung Wednesday morning in the canteen hut.

THREE SKETCHES

The poster has been embellished by three sketches in water color by Thatcher Shellabarger and in this embellishment it attains real artistic merit. The sketches are:

The Ruins of the Church of Mont Foncon

A Picturesque French Home, near Don Sur Meuse

With the Marquis in Pelican Wood

The sketches in three corners of white space on the poster and are wonderfully dainty and artistic and are from the many sketches which Thatcher Shellabarger had made while in France. The Picturesque French Home shows the remaining walls of a partially destroyed cottage with a temporary roof thrown over them.

The poster will be most useful to the canteen workers in enabling them to determine at once the army, corps and division of overseas soldiers as they pass through.

It will probably be placed in the lobby of the liberal arts building. The inscription which will be engraved on it is not announced. The tablet is to be twenty inches by twenty-eight. It is being designed and made by the W. S. Tyley company of Cleveland, Ohio.

BUREAU WANTS

BABY'S LAYETTE

Baby Carriage for Twins Also Can Be Used.

The Social Service bureau is asking for a baby's layette for a mother who has been ill during the winter. The bureau has no layettes on hand and would appreciate it if some one would furnish one for this needy case. The bureau is also asking for a baby carriage for twins. The mother to whom this will be given has six children. The eldest girl takes care of the little ones while the mother goes out to work during the day. The mother's husband died during the influenza epidemic. It is one of the most deserving cases the bureau has met with in its work.

EDUCATION BILLS

MAY NOT SURVIVE

Twenty-One Still to Be Acted Upon by State Legislature.

Superintendent J. O. Engleman who was in Springfield Tuesday states that there are twenty-one educational bills still pending in the legislature. It is certain that all of these will not pass and it is probable that very few of them will become laws. A number of them are of minor importance and really do not matter.

The bill increasing the state distributable fund has been dumped into the hopper as the appropriations committee is called and it has been greatly delayed. It is one of many appropriation bills and nobody is able to say whether it will be ground out at this session or not.

Representative McDavid's minimum wage bill was to have been up for a hearing before the senate educational committee Tuesday but the committee did not materialize.

Senator W. J. McCullough's bill has passed both houses and is waiting for the governor's signature. It is expected that he will sign it today or tomorrow. The bill increases the number of voters placed for school elections in districts working under a special charter to a minimum of five.

WANT ADDRESS OF

BENJAMIN GUNTER

The Department Asks Red Cross to Locate Man.

The adjutant general at Washington has asked the Macon county chapter of Red Cross to secure the correct address of Benjamin Gunter, whose emergency address on the records of the war department is Decatur, Ill. Mail sent to him here has not been delivered.

Anyone knowing where Mr. Gunter can be found probably will confer a favor on him if this information is sent to the Decatur Red Cross secretary who will send it along to the proper person at Washington.

STALEY WORK TO START AT ONCE

New Construction to Dwarf Present Factory Buildings.

The executive forces of the Staley Manufacturing Co. are clearing the decks for rapid action in getting the big additions and improvements which are to be made this year under way at once.

To the ordinary observer the construction which has been going on there for some time has seemed considerable but the construction men promise something which will make large work very quickly which will make the present building work seem rather insignificant.

"We're off," remarked one of the hardest working men of that department Wednesday. "I've so many buildings to start that I hardly know where to begin."

DECATUR LEADS

IN "Y" CAMPAIGN

Colonel J. M. Clarks Speaks on Value of United States Hotel.

Deputy leader of the entire eastern region in the National Y. M. C. A. campaign, according to the announcement of E. J. Hamilton of Cleveland, the regional director of the campaign. The total number of members added up to Tuesday night in the campaign is 574 of which the majority are from Decatur.

Col. J. M. Clarks spoke at the Wabash automobile shops at noon Wednesday in the interest of the membership campaign, dwelling upon the importance of making the old Illinois hotel an adjunct of the national association and a community center.

WAY TO ESCAPE

HIGHER FARES

The one man street cars, which will be the kind which Decatur will receive when the new cars which are now being made for the Decatur Railway & Light Co. arrive, have been tried out in other cities and they are a success.

AT SPRINGFIELD.

This style of car, which is so built that it can be operated by one man has been found to be a success in every way. At first it was feared that the cars might not be able to make their scheduled time, but this has not been found to be true. The cars will not be run on the busiest lines where the pay as you enter cars will still be used but the one man cars will be put into use on other lines.

ARE AUTHORIZED.

The public utilities commission is giving its approval of these cars as the board recognizes that this is the only way in which increased fares may be avoided. The reduction of what the car people call "the platform expense" seems to be about the only way in which the mounting costs of operation may be met without that disliked six or seven cent fare.

The doors are opened by automatic arrangement and as the new cars are under the direct supervision and control of one man conductors through the premature starting of the cars will be prevented.

WANT CORRECT CHANGE.

The only reason which car patrons will be asked to learn will be that of having the correct change so that they may drop it in the box without delaying the motor-man-conductor to make change. It is expected that this will soon become a habit with the patrons of the new cars and that the new one man cars will meet with the approval of the public.

"It's the only way that we can see to escape asking higher fares," said Mr. L. H. Harry, superintendent of the local lines. "We hope that the new system will do that. It will the extra bother and slight delay which may sometimes occur will be worth the while."

W. MELVILLE WOOD

SANITARY TRUSTEE

Appointed to Place by Judge McCoy.

In the county court, Wednesday afternoon, Judge J. H. McCoy appointed W. Melville Wood, president of the Decatur Bridge company, as a member of the board of trustees of the Decatur Sanitary district. His bond was placed at $10,000.

Mr. Wood was appointed to succeed Dan Dinneen, former mayor, who resigned from the position on the board after the election of Charles M. Borchers as mayor.

BORCHERS DECLINED.

Mayor Borchers declined to serve as he did not believe that one man should hold two official positions and Judge McCoy appointed Mr. Wood to the position. The other two associates with Mr. Wood on this important board which has under its supervision the important task of solving the sewage disposal proposition for Decatur are W. C. Wield and Porter J. Millikin.

"Mr. Wood said a Decatur man who knows both Mr. Wood and the problem which is to be solved," is an exceedingly valuable addition to that board. By his special training, his education and his ability as well as by his well known interest in everything which makes for the betterment of Decatur, Mr. Wood is peculiarly well fitted for this position."

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Mills will go over to Salem, Ind., to attend the union meeting of the Orthodox Friends and the Hicksite, Liberal, branch of the Friends church, which will be held Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, at that place. TO INSPECT STORES

May Install Stock Seven Days Before July 4.

Members of the city council in a conference Tuesday on the matter of issuing permits for fireworks decided that permits should be issued under a strict compliance with the city ordinance in relation to fireworks. The chief of the fire department will examine the buildings where in it is proposed to offer the fireworks for sale at retail and unless the location meets with his approval the permit will be refused.

Each room where fireworks are sold must be on the ground floor and each must have doors both in front and rear, opening outward. There are certain other restrictions relating to other kinds of stock that may be kept in the same room where fireworks are sold, and the retailer who expects to sell fireworks should read the ordinance closely before he lays in his supply.

FOUR DAY'S SALE.

Fireworks can be sold at retail only during the four days preceding and on the fourth of July, and can be kept in stock only seven days before and three days following the fourth.

Fireworks cannot be discharged anywhere within two blocks of any hospital, and must not be discharged on the public streets, in alleys, parks, etc.

THE ORDINANCE.

The ordinance prohibits the sale of all fireworks containing chlorate of potash or other high explosive; fire crackers larger than two inches long and a half inch in diameter; marbles coated with any explosive mixture; fireworks containing picric acid or picrates, or sulphur and chlorate in admixture; pistols, cannon, canes or other appliances using blank cartridges or caps containing chlorate of potash; mixture, bombardments or mandrills made of chlorate of potash mixture, cartridge explosives, torpedoes larger than three-quarters of an inch in diameter. Flash powders cannot be kept in stock in quantities larger than fifteen pounds.

The police department has the right to confiscate and destroy any fireworks being used or discharged in violation of the ordinance, and any one violating any of the provisions of the ordinance is subject to a fine of from $10 to $25 for each offense.

MRS. C. W. HIEATT

DIES SUDDENLY

Suffered Stroke of Paralysis Late Tuesday Night.

Mrs. C. W. Hieatt of 539 East Eldorado street died at St. Mary's hospital at 3:15 o'clock Wednesday morning after a short illness. Her death was caused by paralysis with which she was stricken about 9 o'clock Tuesday night while at her home. She was hurried to the hospital, but did not rally. She was about sixty years old. She had been conducting a boarding house at 539 East Eldorado street for some time. The family had lived in Decatur for about six years, coming here from Kansas. Besides her husband Mrs. Hieatt is survived by a son, Bruce Hieatt of Kansas, and a daughter, Mrs. Lottie Glover of Natick. The body was removed to the Moran undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

AMELIA MOORE

OUT ON PAROLE

Was Convicted Six Months Ago on Confidence Charge.

Amelia Moore, who was convicted at the October term of the circuit court in this county in connection with the confidence game in which the automobile of Charles W. Pistorious was involved and which was taken to Iowa by Frank Moore and Amelia Moore who had two other names, has been released from the state penitentiary and paroled to her sister in Indiana.

She was sentenced from one to twenty years and upon recommendation of the division of pardons and paroles, the governor granted commutation of sentence to expire at once.

STILL ARGUE ON

FORD EVIDENCE

Mount Clemens, Mich., May 21.—Arguments on the admissibility of evidence prepared for the Ford-Tribune libel suit continued before Judge Tucker in circuit court here today. It was predicted that they would last all day. The jury was excluded. Alfred Lucking of counsel for Ford resumed his remarks where they were interrupted by adjournment yesterday afternoon.

Corn Is Up.

A good deal of the corn that was planted before the rain is up and some of it is almost big enough to cultivate. Much of the corn crop is in the ground although much remains to be planted. Some neighborhoods are through planting and others are not more than half done. There will be a wide difference between the early and the late planting and every day that the rain comes increases the chances for the late planting to get nipped by the frost next fall.

MEETINGS.

State, L. A. to J. A. of M. will entertain the Wabash Lodge 333, Saturday, May 22, in the Ryan and Higgin hall from 8 P. M. All members and their families will be welcome.

Degree of Honor Lodge No. 1—Meeting at 7:30 Wednesday night in the Ryan and Higgin hall.

RAIN INTERFERS

WITH ATHLETICS

J. M. U.-Charleston Game May Be Postponed.

The continued rains are putting a crimp in athletic activities at Millikin. The baseball game scheduled with Charleston for Thursday afternoon has not as yet been called off, but the diamond probably will be too muddy to allow its being played.

The women's tennis tourney is to begin Friday morning at 9 and unless the rain stops very shortly the games will have to be played in the gymnasium. A rainy season interfered with this event last year; so that the entire tournament was played on the gymnasium floor. This is not as satisfactory as out of door playing, but in case it should be necessary, the Millikin gym floor will be used and the games will be played as scheduled.

WABASH STRIKE

The incipient strike at the Wabash shops is all off and every body is back at work. It is expected to get here late today or tomorrow.

COME TO J. M. U.

TO GET TEACHERS

Keach Bone One of Latest Guest That Has Swamped School.

Keach Bone, a graduate of the James Millikin university with the class of 1917, was visiting at the university Wednesday. Mr. Bone's home is at Rock Creek, and he came in search of teachers for a community high school.

According to President Taylor the university is being swamped with demands for teachers and there are more calls for teachers qualified in different lines than the university can possibly supply at this time.

E. J. Roberts, of Paw Paw and Mrs. A. C. Kauffman are visiting Earl Roberts, at 1150 West North street. Mr. Roberts is the father and Mrs. Kauffman is the sister of Earl Roberts, who is a student at Millikin.

WEATHER EYES

OUT FOR FROST

Temperature of 43 Not Low Enough to Guard Against Frost.

Gardeners and horticulturists, both amateur and professional, sized up the weather forecast last night with a critical eye and tried to decide as to whether or not another heavy frost might be expected this morning.

When darkness fell the sky was overcast with clouds of indigo blue and this taken as an indication that the frost might postpone his visit. However, the cloudy weather would not prevent a frost, but it was feared by some that the temperature might continue on down to below.

Heat was in all buildings Tuesday and Wednesday, an unusual circumstance for May 20 and 21. Grass was generally in use.

A freeze now would do much damage, but a temperature of 43 is nowhere the danger line.

TO HAVE SPEAKERS

IN THIRTY TOWNS

Millikin Endowment Campaign Open June 1.

It is planned to have speakers in thirty different towns on the Sundays of June 1 and 8, to talk on the Millikin endowment fund. There will also be a flying squadron of speakers during that week in all the neighboring districts which may be interested in the Millikin university.

That there is considerable interest in the school in many of the towns near Decatur has already been proven by inquiries at the office of the campaign committee. Dr. C. J. Jenney and others are arranging for this speaking campaign during that week.

"WET AND DRY"

FIELD DAY ON

Springfield, May 21.—The house proceeded today to dispose of all "wet" and "dry" bills on the calendar with galleries filled and both sides claiming the advantage.

Chief interest centered in the "blind tiger" bill which passed the senate and awaits final action by the lower branch. The measure would prohibit the sale, possession or transportation of intoxicating liquor, except for sacramental, medicinal, chemical or manufacturing purposes. Before any residence might be searched, under the provisions of the measure, it will be necessary to prove to the satisfaction of two judges that the residence was a place of "public resort" or that intoxicating liquors were being sold there. The bill would apply only to "wet" territory. "Intoxicating liquor" is defined as containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol.

Representative Tice's bill providing for a prohibition commission, appointed by the governor, four deputies and twenty-five investigators to enforce prohibition also is on third reading. A similar bill also is pending in the senate.

Three bills backed by the "wets" would define intoxicating liquor as that containing more than three per cent of alcohol; requiring that local option petitions be checked against registration lists; and that saloon keepers voted out of business be reimbursed for damages sustained.

Representative William H. DeLoach of Beardstown, Democrat, opposed the measure emphatically, and referred to the Scriptures in support of his contention that Jesus Christ did not disapprove of the use of wine. He referred to the will of George Washington in which liquor was alleged to have been conveyed to his legs, and mentioned a "barrel of whiskey" in the store kept by Lincoln at Old Salem.

Representative Warren E. Douglas of Chicago, Republican, made a plea for personal liberty, and Representative Charles S. Stubbins of Peoria, Republican attacked the bill.

Representative Howard P. Castle of Barrington, Republican, asked the house to pass the measure in order to back up its action on the federal prohibition amendment. Representative K. O. Ronalds of Eldorado Republican also supported the bill.

On the ground that the enforcement measure was discriminatory, Representative Le O'Neill Browne, of Ottawa, Democrat, made a lengthy speech against the bill.

"If you're going to legislate a moral principal into law," he declared, "then you ought to do it without discrimination." He painted a picture of a "dry" state and added: "A little banquet without a little of that enthusiasm is almost as welcome as a bunch of snowballs with your hungry."

THE VOTE.
